Great Britain to contorn tional law.

The conclusion reached, therefore, by officials is that Germany does not in reality desire the "freedom of the seas," but wishes rather to use England's actions as an excuse and justification for unlawful submarine warfare. It is believed Germany would not account to the abandonment of this in-fare. It is believed Germany would not consent to the abandonment of this instrument even should England capitulate to the American demands.

Germany's plea of necessity is not taken seriously here because the argument that Great Britain is starving the civilian population of Germany is not borne out by the facts. Reports from German sources show that there is no starvation or even serious shortage of foodstuffs in the German Empire.

GERMANS DESPAIR FRENCH AEROPLANES DROP 171 BOMBS ON R. R. STATION FILLED WITH STORES

Paris, July 13 .- A brilliant aerial reconnoissance and attack are described in the following French official statement given out to-day:

"An aerial squadron of thirty-five aeroplanes ascended this morning, in spite of a wind blowing forty miles an hour, and bombarded the railroad station strategically established by the Germans at Vigneulles-les-Hattonchatel. This station served the region of the Calonne trenches and that of the Forest of Apremont. Very important stores of every kind, and particularly ammunition, were concentrated there. Our aviators dropped upon these objectives 171 bombs, each of ninety kilograms (about 190 pounds).

"The bombardment started several fires. All our machines returned, although they had been violently cannonaded."

London, July 13.—The Balkan situation is again in the limelight as a result of the disclosures that Austro-German offers have been made to Rumania involving alternative concessions, either to continue neutral or join with the Germanic allies. Confidence is expressed in British, French and Italian circles that the Balkan states will not join the Austro-German alliance, but it is considered likely that, owing to the failure of Russia to hold Galicia and Bukowina, they might decide to remain neutral. Of course, success by the Allies in the Dardanelles would change the situation.

It is also said that the former Greek Premier, Eleutherios Venizelos, in anticipation of his return to power, has arranged to reorganize the Balkan Alliance, of which he was the initiator. M.
